Mobile Banking Service

Mobile Banking is offered as a convenience and supplemental service to our Online Banking services. It is not intended to replace access to Online Banking from your personal computer or other methods you use for managing your accounts and services with us. Mobile Banking allows you to access your North Central Bank account information, use bill pay, transfer funds between your accounts and view history of banking transactions. We reserve the right to limit the types and number of accounts eligible and the right to refuse to make any transaction you request through Mobile Banking. We may also reserve the right to modify the scope of the Mobile Banking Service at any time.

Mobile Banking may not be accessible over some network carriers. In addition, the Mobile Banking service may not be supportable for all Devices. North Central Bank cannot guarantee and is not responsible for the availability of data services provided by your mobile carrier, such as data outages or “out of range” issues.

You agree to accept responsibility for learning how to use Mobile Banking in accordance with the online instructions and agree that you will contact us directly if you have any problems with the service. We may modify the Mobile Banking service from time to time at our sole discretion. In the event of any modifications, you are responsible for making sure you understand how to use the service as modified. You also accept responsibility for making sure that you know how to properly use your device and we will not be liable to you for any losses caused by your failure to properly use the Mobile Banking service or your device.

You agree that, when you use Mobile Banking, you remain subject to the terms and conditions of your existing agreements with any unaffiliated service providers, including, but not limited to, your mobile service provider and that this agreement does not amend or supersede any of those restrictions which might impact your use of Mobile Banking (such as data usage or text messaging charges imposed on you by your mobile service provider for uses of or interaction with Mobile Banking), and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations, and services. Accordingly, you agree to resolve any problems with your provider directly without involving us.

Any deposit account, loan or other banking product accessed through this Mobile Banking Service is also subject to the Account Agreements and Disclosures provided at time of account opening. You should review the account disclosures carefully, as they may include transaction limitations and fees, which might apply to your use of Mobile Banking.

Permitted Mobile Banking Transfers

You may use the Mobile Banking service to transfer funds between your eligible North Central Bank accounts (Internal Transfer). You may not transfer to or from an account at another financial institution using our Mobile Banking service .

Federal regulations require financial institutions to limit the way withdrawals may be made from a savings or money market account. Each transfer from a savings or money market account using Mobile Banking is counted as one of the limited transactions permitted each monthly statement cycle period, as described in the Deposit Account agreement and disclosures.

We may also limit the type, frequency and amount of transfer for security purposes and may change or impose limits without notice, at our option.

At this time, North Central Bank's Mobile Banking service is free. NCB may change the fees for use of the service at any time pursuant to the section titled "Acceptance of these Terms" above. You authorize North Central Bank to deduct such fees from the same bank account as your mobile deposit.
